Doctoral students meeting the conditions and criteria for co-funding tuition fees in doctoral studies and are interested in co - funding in study year 2020/2021 must complete, sign and submit this Statement at the Faculty conducting their doctoral study programme no later than 25th September 2020, when the Call for enrolment into doctoral degrees Study Programmes is closed!

In accordance with the Decree for the co-funding of doctoral studies (Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia, No. 22 as of 28 April 2017) the tuition fees for co-funding of doctoral studies may be granted to students meeting the following requirements:

- they are enrolled in the 1st, 2nd or 3rd year of doctoral studies and regularly advanced to the 2nd and 3rd year of doctoral studies;
- they have not yet obtained the level of education matching the level of education obtained under third-cycle doctoral study programmes;
- their studies under doctoral degree programmes to obtain a PhD, regardless whether they have been completed, are not or have not been co-funded from public funds

Cross enrolment is not co-funded and, furthermore, students enrolled in an extra year are not entitled to co-funding.

Criteria for the selection of candidates for co-funding tuition fees in doctoral studies at the University of Primorska adopted at the UP Senate 2nd correspondence session held from 15th to 17th April 2020 states that Co - funding will be provided for candidates meeting the following criteria:

- a.) Doctoral students that have received co-funding fees following the Call for enrolment in the academic years 2018/2019 and 2019/2020 that have regularly advanced to the 2nd or 3rd year of doctoral studies are, when they complete and sign the Statement on the fulfillment of the conditions for co-funding tuition fees in doctoral studies, automatically entitled to the co-funding tuition fees in the current academic year.
- b.) Doctoral students applying for the first time to the Call for enrolment into the Doctoral degree programmes will be co-funded when they complete and sign the Statement on the fulfillment of the conditions for co-funding tuition fees in doctoral studies if the average grade of exams at the previous level of study is 8 or if they have a scientific publication. The relevance of the publication has to be approved by the Commission for Scientific Research and Development of the UP.
