The Finabel Permanent Secretariat is a Land Force Organisation based in Brussels that works on promoting cooperation and interoperability among the Members' armed forces.

The missions of Finabel are :

- (1) To promote and to facilitate the interoperability of the armies
- (2) The harmonisation of concepts, doctrines and procedures
- (3) To work towards the development of a common European understanding of defence problems

Currently, our Organization is looking for new trainees to do an internship within an international context in Brussels. The internship is UNPAID unless the student applies to an Erasmus Placement Scholarship (e.g. ERASMUS+) through the University.

We are interested in the following fields:

POLITICAL SCIENCE, INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS, EUROPEAN STUDIES, INFORMATIC/COMPUTER SCIENCE RELATED TO CYBER SECURITY, MARKETING & COMMUNICATION, SOCIAL SCIENCES, LAW, PHILOLOGY, or any other similar field

To cover for positions in the Permanent Secretariat for:

RESEARCH TEAM
LEGAL TEAM
COMMUNICATIONS UNIT
EDITOR
EVENTS COORDINATOR

The student must have a good knowledge of English preferable B2 or higher, and must have at least a Bachelor's degree.

The tasks will be assigned depending on the position applied.

The internship should last at least two months and could last up to one year, but the duration as well as the schedule are very flexible.

Students that are interested should send their candidature in our webpage: <https://finabel.org/careers/>

This offer has no deadline, so candidates can apply at any time.
