

Field work in the Autumn semester UP FAMNIT, 2026/2027

Some courses include also fieldwork, which is not listed on the course schedule.

The implementation of fieldwork is arranged between the lecturer and the students at the beginning of the course.

In the Autumn Semester 2026/27, the following courses include fieldwork:

- Biology and Conservation of Large Vertebrates (10 hours)
- Ecology of Mediterranean Forest Ecosystems (10 hours)
- Beekeeping (10 hours)
- Arboriculture (15 hours)
- Sistematic Zoology (10 hours)
- Ecology (30 hours)
- Ecology of Terrestrial Ecosystems (10 hours)
- Marine Ecology (10 hours)
- Conservation of Terrestrial Ecosystems (15 hours)
- Marine Conservation Biology (10 hours)
- Plant Biology (10 hours)
- Fruit Growing (20 hours)
- Viticulture (20 hours)
- Olive Growing and Olive Processing Technology (15 hours)
- Plant Breeding and Biotechnology (10 hours)
- Technologies for Food Processing in Agriculture (10 hours)
- Field Crop Production (10 hours)